A student’s major may be declared under any catalog published after the year of his or her matriculation into the institution. Catalogs issued before a student’s entry into King may not be used for a declaration of major, and majors must be declared no later than the beginning of the fifth semester or junior year, whichever occurs first.