Participation in Commencement Exercises

The commencement exercises of the institution are held twice annually, in May and December. Although degrees are also conferred in August, students who graduate in August will normally participate in December commencement exercises.

Students needing 20 semester hours or less to graduate can petition to march if they are registered for the deficient semester hours in the subsequent semester. The petition process is an email explaining the situation and requesting to march sent to AcademicDean@king.edu.