

Program Coordinator: M. Dotterweich

The B.S. in History taken online at King University will correlate in many ways to the traditional program and is designed for students who would like to complete a bachelor’s degree through the online platform. The online courses composing the B.S. program are not appropriate, in most cases, for traditional face-to-face students in the History program at King to take. The online history courses in the program should be taken only by students enrolled in the BS program or by students enrolled in King’s other GPS programs. The online program is offered in a series of 5-week courses, 3 per semester, and is designed to cover American, European, and World History, and includes courses focusing on historiography, methods, and writing. Each semester of offerings has a thematic focus, and students can enter either at the (A) or the (B) block (first or second 5-week sessions) during a semester.

At the end of the online history program, students will be equipped to:

1. Demonstrate broad knowledge of Western and non-Western history
2. Approach historical materials critically, analyzing and synthesizing information to answer or produce arguments and counter-arguments within the field
3. Communicate effectively in writing
