

Satisfactory Academic Progress will be reviewed and evaluated at the end of each semester of enrollment. When placed on Financial Aid Warning, Financial Aid Probation, or Financial Aid Suspension, the financial aid office sends written notification to the student's King email address.

Failure to meet either the quantitative/pace standard and/or the qualitative academic standard will result in the next semester of enrollment being considered either a warning period, a probation period or a suspension period depending on the number of times a student has not achieved Satisfactory Academic Progress. Transfer students who enter King with a cumulative grade point average (GPA) that falls below the standard come in with their first semester as a warning period and will be evaluated at the end of their first term. Failure to meet the required GPA will result in the loss of financial aid after one term.

Financial Aid Warning

Financial aid recipients will automatically be placed in this status for one semester the first time they fall below the standards of satisfactory academic progress. We recommend the student meet with a representative of the Academic Center for Excellence, academic advisor, and/or Dean of Students.

Failure to meet either the quantitative/pace standard and/or the qualitative academic standard, at the end of the warning period, will result in losing financial assistance eligibility.

Financial Aid Suspension

Students are placed in this status if they do not meet SAP standards at the end of the semester they are placed on Financial Aid Warning. Financial assistance cannot be received while a student is on Financial Aid Suspension.

Students who have their financial aid suspended may submit an appeal to have their aid reinstated. A condition of an approved appeal may require a student to follow an academic plan. Students who fail to meet the conditions of an academic plan or fail to meet the SAP standard after a probationary semester will be placed back on Financial Aid Suspension.

Financial Aid Probation

Once a student submits a financial aid appeal, the appeal will be reviewed by the financial aid committee. If approved, the student will receive a probationary semester. At the end of the probationary semester, the student must have met the satisfactory academic progress standards to continue receiving financial assistance.

The financial aid committee may determine an academic plan for a student submitting an appeal. If the standards of such plan are met, when satisfactory academic progress is reviewed at the end of each semester of enrollment, the student will continue on a probationary basis.
