

Lettie Pate Whitehead Scholars Program Application

The Lettie Pate Whitehead Scholars Program at King University is a community of female, Christian students with career aspirations of helping others. These scholars participate in annual orientation gatherings to learn more about Mrs. Lettie Pate Whitehead, professional development programs, service projects, and goal-setting meetings with the Lettie Pate Whitehead Mentor.

Those selected as Lettie Pate Whitehead Scholars will receive a scholarship awarded annually throughout their undergraduate course of study at King contingent upon academic standing, conduct, and attendance and participation in the Scholars program activities. In accordance with the wishes of the founder, the Lettie Pate Whitehead Foundation supports these need-based scholarships for female students from Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, or Virginia who self-identify as Christian.

To learn more about the legacy of Mrs. Lettie Pate Whitehead and the Lettie Pate Whitehead Foundation, go to www.lpwhitehead.org

Applications for the Lettie Pate Whitehead Scholars program at King University are only accepted from new, first-time King University students enrolling in the traditional, undergraduate program at the Bristol campus. All applications will be reviewed by a committee of King University faculty and staff.

Priority Deadline: December 1st
