And later, we might be awed by the spaces of wonder and the sunlight of surprise. When was the last time you felt a “sunlight of surprise”?

Into the Spaces of Wonder

You might find.

Faith and Culture brings us into thoughtful encounters with artists, theologians, philosophers, musicians, writers, historians, and others to interact with a hospitable spaces where mystery and wonder, redemption and revelation, transcendence and creation may be found.

Come into the spaces of wonder, and see what you might find.

— Shannon Plants, former Director, King Institute for Faith and Culture