

Counseling Center

King University Counseling Center provides students with an opportunity to meet with a licensed professional counselor to assist in reaching their full potential spiritually, emotionally, academically, and socially.

Our Free and Confidential Counseling Center offers:

- A safe and friendly environment to receive help in times of need by a licensed professional counselor
- Individual, Couples, and Group Counseling for a variety of difficulties
- Crisis Intervention
- Referrals to Student Success Services
- Referrals to Community Resources
- Psycho-Educational Programs

Crisis Lifeline: 1-800-273-TALK (8255)

Crisis Text Line: Text 741741

Location:

The Counseling Center is located just behind White Hall, take the walkway between the Fine Arts building and White Hall to the first house on the right or use the private driveway from E. Cedar Street just past the Maintenance building.

Visit us online for more information at:

www.king.edu/student-life/resources-for-students/counseling-center

To Schedule an Appointment:

Call 423.652.4742 or email
counselingcenter@king.edu